

How Deaf People are Made to Hear

Sound Magnifiers Invented by a Kentuckian.

Invisible, When Worn, but Act Like Eye-Glasses.

Ever see a pair of Sound Magnifiers?
They are so soft in the ears one can't tell they are wearing them.

And, no one else can tell either, because they are out of sight when worn. Wilson's Ear Drums are to work hearing what spectacles are to work sight.

Because, they are sound-magnifiers, just as glasses are sight-magnifiers.

They rest the Ear Nerves by taking the strain off them—the strain of trying to hear distant sounds. They can be put into the ears, or taken out, in a minute, just as comfortably as spectacles can be put on and off.

And, they can be worn for weeks at a time, because they are ventilated, and so soft in the ear holes they are not felt even when the head rests on the pillow. They also protect any raw inner parts of the ear from wind or cold, dust, or sudden and piercing sounds.

The principal of these little telephones is to make it so practical for a deaf person to hear weak sounds as spectacles make it easy to read fine print. And, the longer one wears them, the better his hearing should grow, because they rest up, and strengthen the ear nerves. To rest a weak ear from straining is the resting a strained wrist from working.

Wilson's Ear Drums rest the Ear Nerves by making the sounds louder, so it is easy to understand without trying and straining. They make Deaf people cheerful and comfortable, because such people can talk with their friends without the friends having to shout back at them. They can hear without straining. It is the straining that puts such a queer, anxious look on the face of a deaf person.

Wilson's Ear Drums make all the sound strike hard on the center of the human ear drum, instead of spreading it weakly all over the surface. It thus makes the center of the human ear drum vibrate ten times as much as if the same sound struck the whole drum head. It is this vibration of the ear drum that carries sound to the hearing Nerves. When we make the drum vibrate ten times as much we make the sound ten times as loud and ten times as easy to understand.

Deafness, from any cause, ear-ache, buzzing noises in the head, raw and running ears, broken ear-drums, and other ear troubles, are relieved and cured by the use of these comfortable little ear-resters and sound-magnifiers.

A sensible book about Deafness, tells how they are made, and has printed in it letters from hundreds of people who are using them.

Cherished, Lawyers, Physicians, Telegraph Operators, Tailors, Workers in Retail Shops and Foundries—four hundred people of all ranks who were Deaf, tell their experience in this free book.
They tell how their hearing was brought back to them almost instantly, by the proper use of Wilson's Ear Drums.

Some of these very people may live near you, and be well known to you. What they have to say is mighty strong proof.

This book has been the means of relieving thousands of Deaf people. It will be mailed free to you if you usually write a post card for it today. Don't put off getting back your hearing. Write now, while you think of it. Get the free book of proof.

HOUSE VOTES

To Keep Speaker Thompson in the Chair Two Years Hence—Senator
Lamb Turns Balance of Power Over to Republicans.

Columbus, O., March 16—The house of representatives today paid Speaker Thompson an honor never before heard of in Ohio's legislative history when it voted to keep him in the speaker's chair two years hence. Democrats as well as Republicans praised him in speeches. The Democratic representatives who spoke dwelt upon the fact that no partisan spirit had been shown by Mr. Thompson in the committee work; all legislation had been considered on its merits, and he felt that honesty compelled the assertion that the treatment to every member of the house by the presiding officer had been fair. Not a Democratic voice was raised in protest and the resolution making Thompson speaker for two more years went through with a whirl.

LAMB DESERTS DEMOCRATS.
"I charge you with double dealing.
You have not been fair. I am done with you. This is the finish and if you were a candidate today for a seat in the senate from my district, I would not vote for you," said Senator Lamb, of Toledo, to Senator Williams of Cleveland, the Democratic floor leader today.

The break between Lamb and Williams is the result of the passage of the salary bill. Lamb, elected on an independent ticket, held the balance of power in the senate and has been voting with the Democrats. Now that he has deserted them his vote will make that body Republican.

Throat Sore?

There's no telling what a sore throat will do if you give it "right of way." Uncertain remedies often cause dangerous delays. Make a cure sure with Painkiller, known for half a century as a specific for sore throat, croup, coughs, and all kindred troubles. Keep it by you for an emergency. It never fails.
Avoid substitutes, there is but one
